ClearPath Accountants and Shinn Consulting Announce Merger To Expand Locations and Offerings Across the Front Range

Denver, Colorado. September 3, 2013 – Story for submission

ClearPath Accountants, a CPA firm located in the Denver Colorado metropolitan area, is proud to announce its pending merger with Shinn Consulting as of November 1st, 2013. The decision to combine the two companies was arrived at after careful consideration of both their offerings and organizational development. The merger will mean that ClearPath Accountants will now have locations in Fort Collins, Frederick, Denver and Littleton. The two firms are excited about the marriage as it will expand the services, expertise and industry knowledge of the ClearPath Accountants firm.

As stated by Victor Amaya, ClearPath Accountants Partner: “The addition of Ralph Shinn and Mandy Sharpe from Shinn Consulting brings an additional 42 years of experience in business planning, accounting and financial management for small to mid-sized business. We are equally excited to now also have an additional location in Colorado as we continue to expand across the front range.”

ClearPath Accountants LLC, is dedicated to transforming your accounting experience by focusing on proactive advisory services. Our CPA firm provides our clients with information to a “clear path” of improved business processes, cash flow and profitability.
